Rabbi Stephen Foster
Denver, Colorado
(303)-759-1647

Rabbi Foster is rabbi at Temple Emanuel, 51 Grape Street, Denver.

From 1967-1969, 3 years, he served the Casper Jewish community during High Holidays. At the time he was a student at Hebrew Union College. Part of their training entailed bi-weekly services to Jewish congregations. In the late 1960s, Rabbi Foster was serving a congregation at Union City, Tennessee. During the High Holidays, the people went to Jackson, Mississippi, for services. Required to serve on a regular basis, he went to Casper.

Rabbi Foster said that the Casper community was always a High Holidays pulpit only to Hebrew Union College.

telephone interview
Sept. 14, 1987